

September 2014

Dear Friends of the Seattle Polish Film Festival,

Are you ready for the 22nd Annual Seattle Polish Film Festival?

Seattle Gdynia Sister City Association (SGSCA) is proud to present our annual event showcasing the best of Polish cinema. It's because of people like you that we've been able to bring Polish actors, directors, and important films to Seattle audiences for twenty-two years.

This year will be exceptional! The 22nd Annual SPFF expands from six days to two full weeks! The festival starts Sunday, October 5th, with a run of eight stunningly restored Polish classics curated by none other than Martin Scorsese himself – presented at the home of our new partners, Northwest Film Forum! Legendary director Krzysztof Zanussi will be in attendance to present two of his films, and will also kick off the first weekend festivities at the SIFF Cinema Uptown.

There will be more films than ever this year – including shorts and independents presented in cooperation with another exciting new partner, Seattle Film Institute. Attendees will be able to take advantage of our usual benefits, like a free screening courtesy of our friends at 4 Culture, and more Q&A's and panel discussions with filmmakers and artists from Poland. One of those is a rising star of Polish cinema, actor Dawid Ogrodnik, who won 2014's Seattle International Film Festival Best Actor award – the first ever for a Polish artist! Representatives from SIFF will be on-hand to personally present Dawid with the award at SPFF 2014!

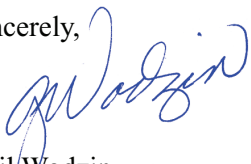

Each year, we're making great strides to put on an even bigger and better event, but it can't happen without your help! When you donate, your financial support helps cover the costs of film royalties, theater rental, airfare and accommodations for our Polish guests, and other costs.

You can participate in several different ways: be recognized as a presenting film sponsor, purchase an ad for your business, become a donor, or purchase a Festival Pass; all with new added benefits! Please review your options on the attached DONOR FORM and select the one that best suits you! And all donations are tax deductible!

We will gladly acknowledge your donation in our festival program when received by September 26th. Upon receipt* of your donation you will also be entered to win a Festival Pass and Poster signed by all our guests!
*(must be postmarked no later than September 26th, 2014)

On behalf of the SGSCA and the SPFF we thank you in advance for your generous support. We look forward to seeing you at the 22nd Annual Seattle Polish Film Festival, October 5-19, 2014.

Sincerely,

Gail Wodzin
President, SGSCA
